Columbus Farmers Markets

Every farmers market in Franklin County and the ring around it — thirty-seven of them, with the address, the day, the hours and whether they double SNAP.

When each one is open is Columbus Farmers Market Seasons, which draws all twenty-five metro markets as bars against the year with a line on today. This page is the other half: where they are.

The pins are coloured by the day of the week, because that is the question people actually arrive with.

The one to pick, if you pick one

Worthington Farmers' Market, 646 High Street, Saturdays 8am–12pm, 2 May to 31 October. It is the largest market in central Ohio, it opens an hour before any other Saturday market, and it is the only one in the region that does not stop for the winter — it moves indoors to the Shops at Worthington Place and keeps going every Saturday from November to April.

If you want the opposite — small, unhurried, two blocks, no crowd worth the name — it is Bexley on a Thursday evening.

Two addresses circulate for Canal Winchester — the Historical Complex at 100 N High Street and Stradley Park at 30 S High Street. Confirm before driving. Westgate also runs two markets outside its season, on 16 May and 21 November.

Sunday markets

Market	Address	Hours	2026 season	Produce Perks
Grandview Heights Farmers' Market	Larson Middle School car park, 1600 W First Ave, Columbus 43212	9am – 12pm	3 May – 11 Oct	No
Wild Ways Farm pop-up	The Little Grand Market, 710 Grandview Crossing Way, Columbus 43215	11am – 4pm	From 5 Jul; no closing date published	No

The Wild Ways pop-up is listed but not on the season chart, because "into fall" is not a date and a bar drawn to a guessed one would be the chart inventing the fact it exists to carry.

Weekday daytime markets

Market	Address	Day and hours	2026 season	Produce Perks
Franklinton Farms	867 W Town St Suite A, Columbus 43222	Order Mon – Thu, collect Fri after 4pm	All year	Yes
Local Matters Veggie Van	Based at 633 Parsons Ave, Columbus 43206	Mon – Fri 9am – 5pm on a published route	23 Jan – 18 Dec	Yes

Pearl Market	Pearl Alley at Gay St, Columbus 43215	Tue and Thu 11am – 2pm	May – Oct	No
Moser's Farm Market	3350 Clark-Shaw Rd, Powell 43065	Wed – Fri 10am – 6pm; Sat 9am – 2pm; Sun 12 – 4pm	Jun – Nov	No
Columbus Public Health Farmers' Market	240 Parsons Ave, Columbus 43215	Three or four dates; times at columbus.gov/wic	1 Jul – 30 Sep	Yes

The Veggie Van is a vehicle rather than a market — it parks at a different stop each weekday on a route published by Local Matters, and it is the reason a stretch of the near south and east side is not a food desert on a Tuesday in March. Franklinton Farms is an order-and-collect urban farm and the only Produce Perks location in the county open every week of the year.

The ring counties

Good markets, none of them in Columbus. The line this page draws is Franklin County plus the contiguous suburbs — the set reachable without planning a drive — and these sit outside it. They are on the map and off the season chart.

Canal Market District also runs a winter market at 31 North Third Street in Newark, Fridays 4–7pm, from November to the end of April.

The North Market is not on this page's map

The North Market Downtown is a historic public market with thirty-odd traders, it is open every day, and it is worth going to. Its dedicated outdoor farmers market at 59 Spruce Street is suspended for 2026. It is not pinned, because a pin for a market that is not running is worse than no pin.

Produce Perks

Twenty-four of the markets here are Produce Perks locations: they take SNAP/EBT through the Ohio Direction card and match it dollar for dollar on fresh produce. Every market in the state directory is one, which is why the ring county table is a solid column of yes — those markets are in that directory precisely because they take the card.

The ones that do not are, with one exception, the newer suburban and neighbourhood markets: German Village, Pearl Market, Dublin, Grandview Heights, Grove City, Canal Winchester, Powell, Market on Orange, Moser's and the Wild Ways pop-up.

What will not pin

Seven rows are listed above and are not on the map. OpenStreetMap carries no house-number record for the address given, and the alternative — dropping a pin on the road centroid — would put a marker somewhere the market is not, which is the failure this site's map rule exists to prevent.

Grandview Heights · Upper Arlington · Bexley · Prairie Township · Moser's Farm Market · Main Street Delaware · Caledonia

Four of those are intersections or car parks rather than street addresses, which is exactly the kind of location OSM does not number.
