A way for the community at large to participate in an agricultural research program ran by someone legit (OSU, USDA). The name being some like "the small plot development program". The mission of this organization will be to evelavate food insecurity and develop locally adapted disease resistant crops. We are a seed bank, nusery, experimental farm and kitchen. We serve the public and consumer, by offering a gentic diverse and local adapt seed. We breed organic vegetables and fruit for shelf-stability, taste and disease resistance for Canada and Appalachia. We recuit seed growers as well. commitment to livestocklink commitment to cover cropslink commitment to farmerslink commitment to permaculturelink food security in the US and Canadalink Aas certifion
