Consulates By State

- Ohio hosts about 2 honorary consulates or consular missions, such as those of Latvia and Luxembourg.
- Some countries like Romania and Croatia provide consular services through honorary consulates or periodic consular days.
- Larger consulates covering Ohio are usually located in nearby states (e.g., the Consulate General of India in Chicago covers Ohio).
- Ohio cities like Cleveland and Columbus may have honorary consuls who promote cultural and economic ties but do not provide full embassy services.
- There are no full embassies or Consulates General physically located in Ohio. Consular Days by the Embassy of Croatia (Eastlake, OH)

The Embassy of Croatia in Washington, DC, regularly organizes 'consular days' in Eastlake, Ohio, offering Croatian citizens in the region access to consular services such as document processing and legal matters by appointment.

German Honorary Consuls in Ohio

Germany is represented in Ohio by several honorary consuls who assist with passport applications and support German nationals. While they do not process visa applications, they serve as important local contacts and report to the Consulate General in Chicago.

Other Honorary Consulates and Consular Offices

Ohio is home to a number of other honorary consulates and consular offices representing countries from around the world. These offices promote commercial, academic, and cultural ties and provide limited consular services to foreign nationals and Ohio residents.
